

DE LA SALLE-COLLEGE OF SAINT BENILDE

Center for Admissions

Application Information and Procedure for 2nd Term AY 2020-2021 Intake
(First Year College, International Student, Transferee, Working Student and Second Degree Applicants)

The Center for Admissions is temporarily collecting scanned copies of documents for application due to the COVID-19 pandemic and government protocols on health and safety. Submission of hardcopy of the documents can be done via courier or by placing it at the dropbox located at the main entrance of the DLS-CSB Taft Campus. As of this time, we do not encourage the physical presence of applicants inside the school premises.

Who can apply as an incoming First Year College Applicant?

- Grade 12 Senior High School student and graduate are eligible to proceed to college who have not enrolled in tertiary education in the Philippines or abroad.
- Filipino students who passed the Philippine Educational Placement Test (PEPT) and/or Bureau Alternative Learning System (BALS or ALS) Test.
- Non-Filipino and dual citizen first year college student applicants including:
 - International student who graduated in Philippine high schools
 - Permanent resident with Alien Certificate of Registration
 - Dual citizen who declares Filipino citizenship

Who can apply as Transferee, International Transferee Student, Working Student and Second Degree?

- Transferee include Filipino students who wish to transfer to DLS-CSB after enrolling in other colleges or universities.
- Second Degree are college graduate who wish to pursue another bachelor's degree at DLS-CSB.
- Working Students refer to those who are at least 19 years old and are engaged in part-time or full-time work in a company or family business. Applicants may apply for the night program under the Career Development Program (CDP).
- Non-Filipino and dual citizen transferee and second degree applicants including:
 - International student who studied colleges or universities in the Philippines
