	DOCUMENT TITLE: DATA PRIVACY POLICY	DOCUMENT NO:	Effective Date:

1. RATIONALE

1.1 De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde (DLS-CSB) collects, uses, stores and processes personal information relating to potential, current and former associates and students, alumni, website users and other relevant third parties, referred to this in this policy as data subjects. As Data Privacy has become relevant and important issue in the education sector and with the implementation of the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (DPA), it is incumbent upon DLS-CSB to adopt reasonable measures to safe guard the personal information it processes. DLS-CSB respects and values data privacy rights and is committed to protect the confidentiality of personal information it collects. This policy sets out how the College manages those responsibilities and which associates, students and other third-party contractors/processors processing personal information should follow to ensure compliance with the DPA and other related legislations and regulations.

2. OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 To ensure clarity and consistency about how personal data must be processed and the College's expectations for all those who process personal data on its behalf.
- 2.2 To ensure compliance with the Data Privacy Act and other relevant legislations and regulations.
- 2.3 To protect the College's reputation by ensuring the personal data entrusted to it is processed in accordance with data subject rights.
- 2.4 To protect the College from risks of personal data incidents or breaches and other breaches of data protection law.
- 2.5 To embed a culture of privacy that enables compliance.
- 2.6 To establish effective privacy practices, procedures and systems.
- 2.7 To evaluate the College's privacy practices, procedures and systems to ensure continued effectiveness.
- 2.8 To enhance response to privacy issues.

3. SCOPE

3.1 This policy applies to all Offices/Schools/Centers of the College, associates (regardless of classification), students and third-party contractors/processors who processes personal information collected by the College or in behalf of the College. The personal data referred to in this policy is limited to those collected and processed by the College. This policy applies to all personal data the College process regardless of the location where that personal data is stored (e.g. on associate's own device) and regardless of the data subject.

4. DEFINITION OF TERMS

- 4.1 Data Subject – refers to an individual whose personal data is processed by the College.
- 4.2 Student – an individual officially enrolled in the College.

5.8. Privacy Notices. The College and all Offices/Schools/Centers processing personal data must provide data subject with a “privacy notice” to inform them how and for what purpose their personal data is processed. These notices may be in the form of general privacy statements applicable to specific group of individuals or may be stand alone, one-time privacy statements covering processing related to a specific purpose.

See Appendix A: Data Privacy Notice (Template and Guidance)

5.9. Data Retention and Disposal

5.9.1 Personal information must not be kept longer than necessary for the purposes for which it was originally collected. This applies to all personal information, whether held on core systems, local personal computers, laptops, mobile devices or held on paper.

5.9.2 If the data is no longer required, it must be securely disposed by shredding or by deletion.

5.9.3 The Office/School/Center must set its own retention schedules based on legal and business requirements or based on industry practice.

5.10 Privacy by Design (PbD) Framework. By applying PbD framework, the College shall:

5.10.1 Take a proactive rather than a reactive measure. It anticipates the risks and prevents privacy incidents before they occur.

5.10.2 Seek to deliver the maximum degree of privacy by ensuring personal information are automatically protected as a practice. No action on the part of the individual is needed in order to protect their privacy.

5.10.3 Embed PbD into the design and architecture of the IT system and business practices of the College. Privacy shall be integrated into the system without diminishing the College’s functions.

5.10.4 Seek to accommodate all legitimate objectives in a positive-sum “win-win” manner.

5.10.5 Embed PbD into the system prior to the first element of information being collected and extends securely throughout the entire lifecycle of the data involved.

Office/School/Center must always consider privacy issues at the earliest stage and Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) must be conducted. The PIA is a mechanism to identify and examine the impact of new initiatives and putting in place measures to minimize or reduce risks during the design stages of a process and throughout the life cycle of the initiative. This includes implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures to minimize the potential negative processing can have on the data subjects' privacy. This will ensure that privacy and data protection control requirements are not an afterthought. The PIA is part of the Information Security Assessment Template.

See Appendix B: Information Security Assessment Template

5.12.2 A PIA should be conducted in the following cases:

- 5.12.2.1 The use of new technologies or changing technologies (programs, systems or processes);
- 5.12.2.2 Automated processing including profiling;
- 5.12.2.3 Large scale processing of sensitive data;
- 5.12.2.4 Large scale, systematic monitoring of a publicly accessible areas (e.g. CCTV).

5.12.3 A PIA must include:

- 5.12.3.1 Description of the program benefits which requires the collection of personal information, project, process, measure, system or technology and including expected;
- 5.12.3.2 Description of the information lifecycle including personal information data process flow;
- 5.12.3.3 Description of legal grounds for processing personal information including copies of forms used (e.g. consent forms);
- 5.12.3.4 Identification of the privacy risks and type of risk.

5.12.4 Risk Map

- 5.12.4.1 A Risk Map is an assessment of the severity and likelihood of identified risks
- 5.12.4.2 It includes a list of proposed controls with type (organizational, physical, or technical), estimated cost, and estimated implementation timeframe.

Information on data subjects rights is found in Appendix C: Data Subject Rights.

5.16 Where the legal basis of processing is consent, data subject may withdraw consent. When withdrawing consent, the data subject needs to demonstrate valid and reasonable grounds for withdrawal relating to their particular situation.

5.17 Data subject have the right to object to specific types of processing such as processing for direct marketing, research or statistical purposes. The data subject needs to demonstrate valid and reasonable grounds for objecting to the processing relating to their particular situation except in direct marketing where it is an absolute right. Individuals receiving these kinds of requests should not act to respond but instead contact the Data Protection Officer immediately.

5.18 Rights in Relation to Automated Decision Making and Profiling. In case of automated decision making and profiling that may have significant effects on data subjects, they have the right to either have the decision reviewed by a human being or not to be subject to this type of decision making at all. These requests must be forwarded to the DPO Immediately.

5.19 Record Keeping

5.19.1 The College shall keep full and accurate records of all its data processing activities. Offices/Schools/Centers must keep and maintain accurate records reflecting the College’s processing, including records of data subjects’ consents and procedures for obtaining consents, where consent is the legal basis of processing.

5.19.2 These records should include, at a minimum, the name and contact details of the College as Personal Information Controller (PIC) and the DPO, clear descriptions of the personal data types, data subject types, processing activities, processing purposes, third-party recipients of the personal data, personal data storage locations, personal data transfers, the personal data’s retention period and a description of the security measures in place

5.22.1 Personal data under the custody of the College shall be disclosed only pursuant to a lawful purpose, and to authorize recipients of such data. Personal information shall always be held securely and shall not be disclosed to any unauthorized third party either accidentally, negligently or intentionally.

5.22.2 In the absence of Consent, a legal obligation or other legal basis of processing, personal information should not generally be disclosed to third parties unrelated to the College (e.g. students' parents, members of the public, private property owners). If student is 18 years old and above, the students' parent/s and/or guardians do not have an automatic right to gain access to their child's data unless their child have signed the consent form allowing them access to the student's records.

5.22.3 Some government agencies have a statutory power to obtain information. Associates or students should seek confirmation of any such power before disclosing personal data in response to a request. If you need guidance, please contact the DPO.

5.22.4 Without a search warrant subpoena, the law enforcement officers have no automatic right of access to records of personal information, though voluntary disclosure may be permitted for the purposes of preventing/detecting crime or for apprehending offenders. For guidance, please contact the DPO.

5.23 Direct Marketing. Direct Marketing does not only cover the communication of material about the sale of products and services to individuals, but also the promotion of aims and ideals. For the College, this will include notification about events, fundraising, selling of goods or services. Marketing covers all, such as contact by mail, telephone and electronic messages (emails and text messaging). The College must ensure that it complies with relevant legislations when it undertakes direct marketing and must cease all direct marketing activities if an individual request it to stop.

5.24 Responsibilities

5.24.1 Associates and students are responsible for:

5.24.1.1 Familiarizing themselves with the privacy notice provided when they register with the College; and

Data Subject Rights

The Data Privacy Act (DPA) contain eight (8) data subject rights to which the College must comply with:

1. Right to be informed.

- 1.1 This applies whether personal information pertaining to the data subject shall be, are being, or have been processed. It includes any form of automated processing of personal information consisting of personal data.
- 1.2 Data subject is notified and furnished of the following before the entry of data subject's personal information into the processing system of the College personal information controller, or at the next practical opportunity:
 - 1.2.1 Description of the personal data to be entered into the system;
 - 1.2.2 Purposes for which information are being or will be processed, including processing for direct marketing, profiling or historical, statistical or scientific purpose;
 - 1.2.3 Basis of processing, when processing is not based on the consent of the data subject,
 - 1.2.4 Scope and method of the personal information processing;
 - 1.2.5 The recipients of the personal information or to whom it may be disclosed;
 - 1.2.6 Methods utilized for automated access, if the same is allowed by the data subject, and the extent to which such access is authorized;
 - 1.2.7 The identity and contact details of the personal information controller or its Data Protection Officer (DPO),
 - 1.2.8 The period for which the information will be stored.
 - 12.8.1 The existence of their rights as data subjects.

2. Right to object.

- 2.1 The data subject shall have the right to object to the processing of his or her personal information, including processing for direct marketing, automated processing or profiling. The data subject shall also be notified and given an opportunity to withhold consent to the processing in case of changes or any amendment to the information supplied or declared to the data subject.
- 2.2 When a data subject objects or withholds consent, the processor shall no longer process the personal data, unless:
 - 2.2.1 The personal data is needed pursuant to a subpoena;
 - 2.2.2 The collection and processing are for obvious purposes, including, when it is necessary for the performance of or in relation to a contract or service to which the data subject is a party, or when necessary or desirable in the context of an employer-employee relationship between the collector and the data subject; or
